About the Presenter:

Amber Stiles Bodnar, M.S.Ed., LPCC-S, LCDC III

Clinical Director of Blue Star Family Counseling Services, Inc.

Amber Stiles-Bodnar, MSED, LPCC-S, LCDC III, is a Licensed Supervising Professional Clinical Counselor and Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor in the state of Ohio specializing in PTSD, issues related to abuse and trauma, addiction treatment, co-occurring disorders, issues specific to military, law enforcement, first responders and their families, LGBTQIA+ and women and children's issues. She earned a Master of Science in Education in Community Counseling from Youngstown State University and is a contributing faculty instructor at her alma mater in both the College of Education, Department of Counseling and Special Education and the College of Health and Human Services in the Social Work Department providing course instruction to graduate level students.

Amber has worked in mental health and chemical dependency treatment providing therapy as a residential, outpatient and dual diagnosis counselor. She is the Clinical Director of Blue Star Family Counseling Services, Inc., a non-profit comprehensive trauma counseling agency in Cortland, Ohio which specializes in the treatment of military personnel, first responders, law enforcement and their family members. Her distinctive background includes 12 years of law enforcement experience allowing her a unique insight when helping those in specialized occupations such as police, fire, EMS and the armed forces. Amber is a member of her local county's Critical Incident Stress Management Response Team, where she assists in debriefing law enforcement, police, fire, EMS and 911 dispatch personnel after they have been subjected to a potentially traumatic event within the community. She is a volunteer on her county mental health and recovery board's Trauma Steering Committee, an initiative to create change and ensure trauma informed care and treatment within community mental health and county wide services.
